

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

A democracy must have at it's core and heart diversity of opinion and we can only have this with a free and diverse media. If ownership is so consolidated that just the very rich and powerful and conservative have a voice, then we are screwed as a democracy. Please don't let this happen!
